

Corporate Vision Unveils the Winners of the 2020 Education & Training Awards

United Kingdom, 2020- Corporate Vision Magazine has announced the winners of the 2020 Education & Training Awards 2020.

They say that learning lasts a lifetime – and that is certainly a motto that business leaders aim to cultivate in their enterprises should they wish to attain lasting success and constant professional development of their team. Of course the building blocks for later success are nurtured in childhood. Skills, personality, outlook, ethos, drive, hobbies and ambition are all rooted in early life. The role of an educator then, as has so often been reinforced, is utterly fundamental to the fabric of our society. When education falters, it can have catastrophic ripple effects across generations. Yet, when education is exemplary, it can determine the progression of a nation.

The Education & Training Awards were launched to spotlight the paragons of education and training. Whether you deliver early years support, or professional training opportunities, we have endeavoured to showcase those that have truly come to define the sector that they work in.

Awards Coordinator Chloe Smart commented: “From early learning, to adult education, all who make contributions to this vital sector are recognised in the Education and Training programme. I am proud to offer all of my winners my congratulations and best wishes for the future.”
